

BYU School of Music

INSTRUCTIONS FOR NON-REQUIRED STUDENT RECITALS

NOTE: Student pays all costs associated with a non-required student recital.

- Student obtains the following documents from the School of Music website (music.byu.edu)
 - Non-Required Recital Approval form
 - Financial Policies for Student Recitals document
- Student obtains approval and signature of private lessons teacher or faculty member associated with the major.
- Student obtains estimate of costs and signature from School of Music Associate Director: Performance (Professor Alex Woods).
- Student takes signed form to HFAC Scheduling, obtains HFAC Scheduling signature, and schedules the recital.
- One week in advance of the recital, check with HFAC Scheduling to make sure everything is in order.
- Student's account is billed for all costs associated with the non-required recital.