**Please note that your attendance at music class is important to the success of our program. BYU students count on the children being in attendance, and their experience is compromised when there are only 3 – 4 children to observe. While we understand that there will be illness and other conflicts, such as family vacations, we ask that you commit to at least 75% attendance in registering for our classes. Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Available Classes

All classes will be held on Saturdays September 2021 – March 2022
C-580 Harris Fine Arts Center, BYU Campus
