STUDIO MUSICIAN SEMINAR - Thursday, July 29, 2021

This seminar is primarily designed for musicians curious about working in a recording studio:

- What skills are required to become a successful studio musician?

- What kind of education do you need?

- What kinds of opportunities exist for studio musicians?

- How much money can you make as a studio musician?

- What are the pros and cons of studio musician work?

Plus, in typical AMA style, ask whatever you want to know. We will try to answer every question, even if we have to extend beyond the scheduled hour.

Featuring veteran studio musicians Nicole Pinnell (cello) and Jeannine Goeckeritz (flutes). Moderated by composer Chance Thomas (Lord of the Rings Online, Avatar, Warhammer).

Nicole and Jeannine have played on literally HUNDREDS of recording sessions for blockbuster video games, movie trailers, TV shows, film scores, albums, commercials, and musical theater scores. They are in high demand and have achieved extraordinary success.

Sponsored by HUGEsound Records.

To attend the event, simply purchase any one album (as low as $4.99) from HUGEsound Records' online soundtrack gallery HERE. A registration confirmation with an imbedded Zoom link will automatically be sent to you within 24 hours after your purchase.

The date is Thursday, July 29, 2021. Downbeat at 6pm PST (7pm Mountain, 8pm Central, 9pm Eastern). Hope to see you there!
